Declaration by Author(s)

I/We hereby declare that-

1. The manuscript whose title appears below is scripted according to the prescribed guidelines of Indian Journal of Extra-Corporeal Technology.
2. The manuscript is an original research article/review of current practice/case report/invited article (strike out whichever is inapplicable).
3. Information in the manuscript was drafted after getting requisite permission from The Head of Department/ Institutional Clinical Research Committee/Institutional Ethics Committee (strike out whichever is inapplicable).
4. The data (statistical or otherwise). Diagrams, Photographs and Figures that are part of the manuscript are of authentic origin and not violative of copyright infringement or anti-plagiarism laws.
5. The references mentioned as part of the manuscript are relevant to the topic concerned.
6. Any data, diagrams or figures that have been re-produced in the manuscript, have been re-produced with the appropriate permissions from all concerned and relevant individuals/organisations/sources, as well as the relevant permission suitably represented in the manuscript.
7. In the event of any data, diagram, figure and other information in the manuscript found violative of copyright infringement or anti-plagiarism laws, anywhere, the Editor-in-chief or Editorial Board of Indian Journal of Extra Corporeal Technology will not be responsible for any legal or other binding issues.
8. Any legal or other related issues involving the manuscript will be applicable on me/us and the Editor-in-chief or the Editorial Board of Indian Journal of Extra-Corporeal Technology will not be made party to such proceedings.
9. Upon confirmation of publishing of the manuscript, the permanent ownership of the article and concomitant rights with respect to re-printing, referencing/reproduction of data and other such privileges shall rest with the Editor-in-Chief, Indian Journal of Extra-Corporeal Technology.
10. Any request for re-printing, referencing/reproduction of data from the manuscript, directed towards me/us and/or the Editor-in-Chief, Indian Journal of Extra-Corporeal Technology shall be mutually communicated.

Title of Manuscript:

Name of the Author(s)

Signature of the Author(s)